RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG, et al
ESP-R

Dear Mr. Saypol:

On March 14, 1951, Dr. William Spindel, East Greenbush, N.Y., advised our Albany Field Office that he had read the testimony of David Greenglass in the "New York Times" in which Greenglass stated that Spindel advised him that Nick Baker was Nils Bohr.

Spindel stated that this information was common knowledge at Los Alamos and that he is prepared to deny flatly that he ever furnished this information to Greenglass. Spindel stated that his purpose in contacting the office was to "be put on record". Spindel gave no indication that he had been asked to serve as a defense witness.

Very truly yours,

MEMO

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESP-R

Mr. Hennrich called at 11:30 A.M. and advised that the U.S. Attorney's Office had identified the representative of the airline in Mexico City, who was to come to the U.S. to testify, as GLEN DAVIS. He said the Legal Attache has identified him as GLEN DENNIS and to desired to know what name had been set forth on the subpoena forwarded by the U.S. Attorney's Office to the Department of Justice.

I called Mr. Hennrich back and stated that the name the U.S. Attorney's Office had and which they obtained personally on their trip to Mexico City, was GLEN DAVIS. I told Mr. Hennrich we had advised the U.S. Attorney's Office that possibly his name was GLEN DENNIS and it was suggested the U.S. Attorney's Office here contact the Department of Justice and request them to authorize the State Department to properly correct the subpoena. I told Mr. Hennrich the U.S. Attorney's Office said they would do this and in the meantime asked that we advise the Legal Attache so the latter could inform DAVIS' employers that a subpoena had been issued.

Mr. Hennrich said this would be done.

MEMO

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESP-R

I telephonically contacted Mr. Hennrich of the Bureau at 11:30 A.M. on 3/15/51 and advised him the U.S. Attorney desired to introduce into evidence bank records of the Manufacturers Trust Co., showing a June 14, 1950 deposit of $550.00 by RUTH GREENGLASS, which money originated with JULIUS ROSENBERG.

I requested the Bureau to authorize this office to serve the subpoena inasmuch as the accountants working on this case knew specifically where this material was located and we desired the authorization to serve the subpoena in order to maintain our contact at the bank and cause them the least amount of trouble.

Mr. Hennrich called back and stated the Bureau approved our serving the subpoena.

MEMO

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG, et al
ESP-R

On 3/14/51, while speaking with AUSA Roy Cohn, he introduced the writer to HOWARD RUSHMORE, of the N.Y. Journal American, who advised that VINCE HARTNETT of Counter-Attack told him he knew CHARLES DUDA, a musician, who was an underground member of the Communist Party.

HARTNETT did not know if this DUDA was identical with Juror #11, CHARLES J. DUDA, bookkeeper of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y.

RUSHMORE stated he would re-contact HARTNETT if this office so desired.
